BASEBALL

AMERICA'S FIRST BASEBALL COMPANY

History

1871 | Albert Goodwill Spalding begins his professional baseball career with the Boston Red Stockings. Over his career, he achieved a .323 batting average, an earned run average of 2.14 and an overall winning percentage of .796, a record that still stands today. He also became baseball's first 200 game winner.

1876 | The first A.G. Spalding & Brothers sporting goods store opens in Chicago. Combining his baseball experience with his business skills, A.G. Spalding & Bros. emerges as a dominant company in the sporting goods industry.

1876 | Spalding makes the First Major League Baseball and becomes the official ball of the National League for the first 100 years (1876-1976) and of the American League (1889-1973).

1877 | Spalding makes the First Major League Baseball Glove. Throughout its' history, dozens of Hall of Fame players have worn Spalding fielding gloves.

1878 | Spalding publishes first "Official Rules Guide for Baseball".

1882 | A.G. Spalding becomes President of the Chicago White Stockings, leading the team to 5 pennants in 10 years.

1888-1889 | A.G. Spalding takes the top pro ball players around the globe playing exhibition games to introduce the sport of baseball to the world.

1900 | Spalding had factories across the nation and was producing 1 million bats per year, and unheard of number at that time.

1939 | A.G. Spalding was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame the year it opened.

today | Spalding as a company still maintains the same drive, balancing professionalism on and off the field, following in the cleat marks of their founder; rooted firmly in the past, focusing on the future and maintaining the true spirit of competition.

Spalding Baseball Pro Staff now includes over 50 Major League and Minor League players.
